

Found Pound Sound (Installation View)

Found Pound Sound is an installation consisting of a coin (an English pound or equivalent) and a recording of a coin dropping on the pavement. The coin is permanently attached to the pavement of a public sidewalk. The recording is broadcast every seventy-one seconds from a hidden speaker. (In this case the speaker is hidden behind a ventilation grate.)

David Glenn Rinehart

Stare.